PRELUDE

Andover High School

Now we have sampled life,
Seen society and civilization in school —
Our education was a taste of the world!
Bitter for some,
Savory for others,
But for most it was both.
In school, the days were longer than the years —
We faced each test,
Succeeded and failed,
Always learning
Until everything became a memory —
Then school was over,
And yet still beginning.
This short span of years has presented to us
Our first tastes and tests —
We have started
To mature, to develop, to live —
This beginning has been
The most exciting part of our lives,
The most important —
We have passed a landmark.
This book is only a glimpse,
What really happened is in the pages of our minds —
This is volume one of an unfinished series.

DEDICATION

Mrs. Gertrude B. Hardy

We, the class of 1964, are pleased to dedicate our issue of the ANDANNO to a teacher who has served on the senior high school faculty longer than any other present member. Mrs. Hardy's contribution to the school activities, her ability to keep apace with the changes in subject matter, and her cheerful sense of humor have inspired us greatly.

Considerate of the needs of others, she has given generously of her time and effort to us, both collectively and individually. May she have many years of personal happiness and of service to her future students.

IN APPRECIATION

*Have enjoyed you so much in class!
Best wishes!
E. Marjorie Smith*

The Class of 1964 salutes — but with deep regret — one of our most respected and beloved teachers, Miss E. Marjorie Smith, as she retires at the close of the present school year. It has been our good fortune to share with so many classes before us the grace, dignity, competence, and versatility with which she has so deeply impressed the Andover community, particularly the high school, since Miss Smith joined the faculty in 1926. Her wide range of teaching has extended from mathematics to Spanish, French, and, ultimately, to the position of Head of the Foreign Language Department. She has given much in time and effort to many of our activities. Most noteworthy of all has been her leadership as Faculty Advisor of the local chapter of the National Honor Society since its inception more than a decade ago.

As Miss Smith leaves us, we are confident of the fact that we speak not only for ourselves but for her many former students, colleagues, (past and present) and for the town to which she gave so much, in wishing her many happy and well-deserved years of retirement.

REMINISCENCE

The class of 1964 — as a group — has been as lively and as individual as any of its predecessor classes of this era and as determined to leave its mark on the Andover High School. Our liveliness stemmed from the fact that we have treasured the good times we have had; always we have looked forward to more. We have been representative of our time in embodying the spirit of change, so prevalent in the modern world. In the legacy which we now leave at the Andover High School there is determination — a legacy for which we have worked, and of which we are proud.

Although not unique in this respect, we were the largest class to enter this school (in September 1961), destined to leave three years later as the smallest of the three senior high school classes. Undaunted, our class spirit carried us through the trials and tribulations of lockers, upper classmen, and the mid-year examinations. Always on guard for the best manner in which to overcome the pressures of study at this higher level, the more athletically-inclined of our members filled out the ranks of the football squad and gained the experience to uphold the team in the following two years.

Our junior year was, perhaps, the most significant. We saw continuing change, and duly accepted it as a transition taking place in the world around us. Success marked our two dances, "Bubbles" and "The Unicorn." The imagination and creativity of the class was clearly demonstrated in the bizarre decorations. We made the first really important move in current appeal of Folk Music in Andover by presenting our own Folk Singers at our dances. (At least, we like to think of it in that way.)

Though we outwardly bemoaned the loss of Period A, our common sense nodded approval as college began to loom over the horizon. We could see that that period would have to yield to the schedules which we would have to face. That year will probably pass into history as the "Year of the Necktie." The boys had a few rebel days on which they wore the widest and most colorful ties in their collections. We survived the seemingly endless routine of standardized tests — National Merits, College Boards, (Aptitude and Achievement), among others.

Finally, we renounced the traditional Prom procedures; in doing so, perhaps we established a new trend for those who follow us. We had none of the fuss of decorations, but only the good time that followed. How did we ever overcome the temptation of "accidentally" pushing our dates into the pool? It was a perfect night. It was our night.

We returned last September as seniors — the epitome of perfection! We still managed to encounter various problems, however gracefully we managed to solve them. This was a year of sobering moments as we tried to assess our abilities to get into professional schools or colleges. We sat back for "the long wait."

We joined the bandwagon of the Mop-Headed Beatles. Our boys again proved themselves as good competitors in the Tech Tournament. The Senior Class Council and the Student Council talked much; what was accomplished remains to be seen. We resigned ourselves to sitting in homerooms for the split assemblies, accepting the fact that Andover High School was growing — or that we were out-growing it in numbers.

We saw the assassination of President Kennedy, who so symbolized the drive of Youth. We felt the loss, but learned to become accustomed to it as a part of life. We are, apparently, the last class which will graduate from "our" auditorium, a further reminder of the changing times.

We shall always remember our three years at Andover High School, for they are a part of us. This, however, has been the year which will stay with us most, as we move forward.

This was the saddest, gladdest, year.

FLOWER*DRUM*SONG

The class of 1964 broke all traditions for their Junior Class prom, "The Flower Drum Song," on May 31, 1963. The prom committee, with co-chairmen and host and hostess Jim Brent and Linda Neil, provided the music and entertainment to top off the evening. In place of the junior high school gymnasium we had the improved atmosphere provided by the Hillview Country Club. The evening passed by the pool, at the tables, and on the dance floor. We crowned our hostess as our queen, and our advisor, Miss Dugan, as our honorary queen. The class leaves this innovation in junior year activities as part of its legacy.

"May I have a bite of your crown?"

ACTIVITIES

INTERLUDE

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council's purpose is to give the student body representation through its elected home-room members. It is a form of democracy in action. The council has been active this year through the efforts of the executive board. They have held a dance, chosen an emblem for our newly acquired mascot, and provided the school with a very interesting Student Council Week.

The aim of the Science Club is to stimulate interest in science through discussions, movies, and speakers. The members are eagerly looking forward to a field trip which will conclude the year's program.

MATH CLUB

The Math Club provides a broad field of interest for math students. As a member of the Northeastern Massachusetts Mathematics League, Andover sends ten students each month to compete in math contests. This year Andover has received many 2nd and 3rd place awards.

MOSAIC

The MOSAIC, this year, was printed by a different firm. Thanks to the guidance and concern of the new printers, our newspaper underwent a long overdue renovation. Everything from the heading to the actual paper was changed. With a new format and fewer physical restrictions the paper should be able to develop into a very respectable journal of student activities and opinions. At least a revision was attempted; what follows will depend upon the free expression of views and the establishment of an imaginative, organized staff by next year's future journalists.

VARSITY CLUB

The Varsity Club, a student organization, composed of varsity letter winners and cheerleaders, is the sponsor of many important school functions. The Varsity Club Dance has been an annual event, as well as the Basketball Jamboree. The proceeds from these events are used to provide a deserving student with a scholarship. The officers of this organization are: James Brent, President; Leonard Sheenan, Vice-President; Barbara Broderick, Secretary; and Ralph Dockray, Treasurer.

Members of the Ski Club have the opportunity to ski at local slopes at reduced rates. The group has planned many day trips to the mountains and one overnight.

PEP CLUB OFFICERS

PEP CLUB

The Pep Club has a large membership. Its purpose is to provide school spirit at games. The Club was instrumental in promoting the new A.H.S. symbol, the Golden Warrior.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

In keeping with the theme "People helping people," the members of the Junior Red Cross provided emergency baby sitting, assisted at the blood mobile, and visited with patients at the Cole nursing home. On the hundredth anniversary of the Red Cross the group hung colorful posters depicting the progress of the Red Cross on the wall of the cafeteria.

SERVICE CLUB

The Service Club has a dual purpose: service to both the school and the community. This year the Club sponsored a bakery sale and dance; the proceeds from these two events were used to provide spending money for the two A.F.S. students who are at Andover High. In the fall they gave a Halloween party for the children in the Bon Secours Hospital and in February they entertained the mentally retarded children in the Burke Memorial Hospital.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The purpose of the National Honor Society is to give recognition for high scholarship, outstanding school citizenship, and leadership. Membership in the society is restricted to 10% of the student body. Each year an impressive ceremony is held to induct new members. Although the Honor Society in Andover High School is mainly honorary, it does sponsor fundraising activities in order to offer at least one annual scholarship of $100. This year the society has participated in two Eastern Massachusetts Honor Society Conventions in Wilmington and Natick. The purpose of these conventions was to exchange ideas which would strengthen the role of the National Honor Societies in the schools.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

The American Field Service is composed of students who desire to learn more about exchange students and their hosts. The A.F.S. is supporting two students this year: Gunnar Solbraa and Gretha Schermerhorn.

Gunnar is an exchange student from Norway. He has taken an active part in many high school activities and sports. Gretha is a student from Holland. Although she is a more recent member of the A.F.S., she has improved relations between our two countries. The group is planning to send an Andover High School student abroad next year.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

An inexperienced Andover High football team finished the season with a record of three wins and five losses. It is a credit to the ability of the seniors, and the rapid development of the sophomores and juniors that the team scored three victories in its last four games.

The season was highlighted by victories over Newburyport (13-7) and Amesbury (12-0).

This year there was only one Little Three contest. We did not play Methuen due to President Kennedy's death. Andover defeated North Andover (26-14) in the traditional Thanksgiving Day rivalry.

The offensive team was composed largely of seniors: Ends — Harry Dustin and Cal Deyermond, Tackles — Roger Jackson and co-captain Ed Seero, Guards — Bob Cole and Alan Stocks, the only underclassman in the starting offensive line, and Center Jeff Barnes. Charlie Towne, a sophomore, was the starting fullback, Frank Trombly was the quarterback, and sophomore Tom Marjerison also saw much action. Dave Bennett and co-captain Jimmy Brent were the two halfbacks.

Many boys saw action on the defensive squad. In the defensive line were Ed Seero, Ed Huot, Joe Richards, Jeff Barnes, Bruce Howard, Bruce Weaver, Bob Robichaud, and Mat Hall. Roger Jackson and Charlie Towne excelled as linebackers. Ron Kaczynski, Cal Deyermond, Dave Bennett, Jimmy Brent, Tom Katz, Arthur Ricci, and Mike Simpson saw action in the secondary.

With the experience gained by the sophomores and juniors this year, the team can look forward to a fine season in 1964.

At the football banquet, Roger Jackson received the award as the Most Valuable Player on the squad. Ed Seero was awarded the Most Outstanding Defensive Performer Award. Jimmy Brent received an award for the Most Outstanding Offensive Performer. Jimmy Booth received the Attitude Award and Harry Dustin received the award for the Most Improved Player.

The team missed the services of outstanding letterman Ralph Dockray.

It was an exciting, hard fought, and worthwhile season.

The team was fortunate to have the services of Bill Cairnie as team manager. Cairnie was an outstanding player last year, and this season he was invaluable in performing his many duties for the squad.

Oh, oh, Here comes another one!

Now what do I do?

Boy, we're gonna' catch it for this!

"Stop crying: I do so like you!"

"Are you rejected because of dandruff?"

Do the Bumbles bounce?

TAR BABY 6!

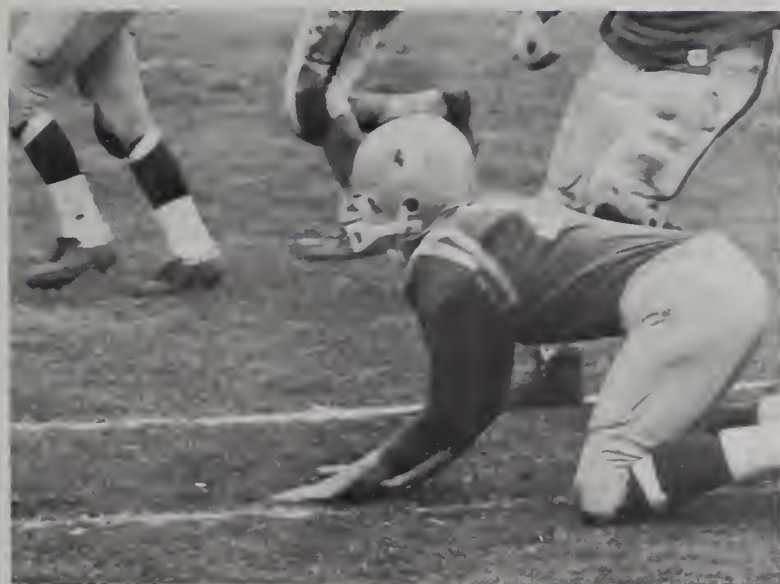

It came from the Shawsheen river!

You better run buddy.

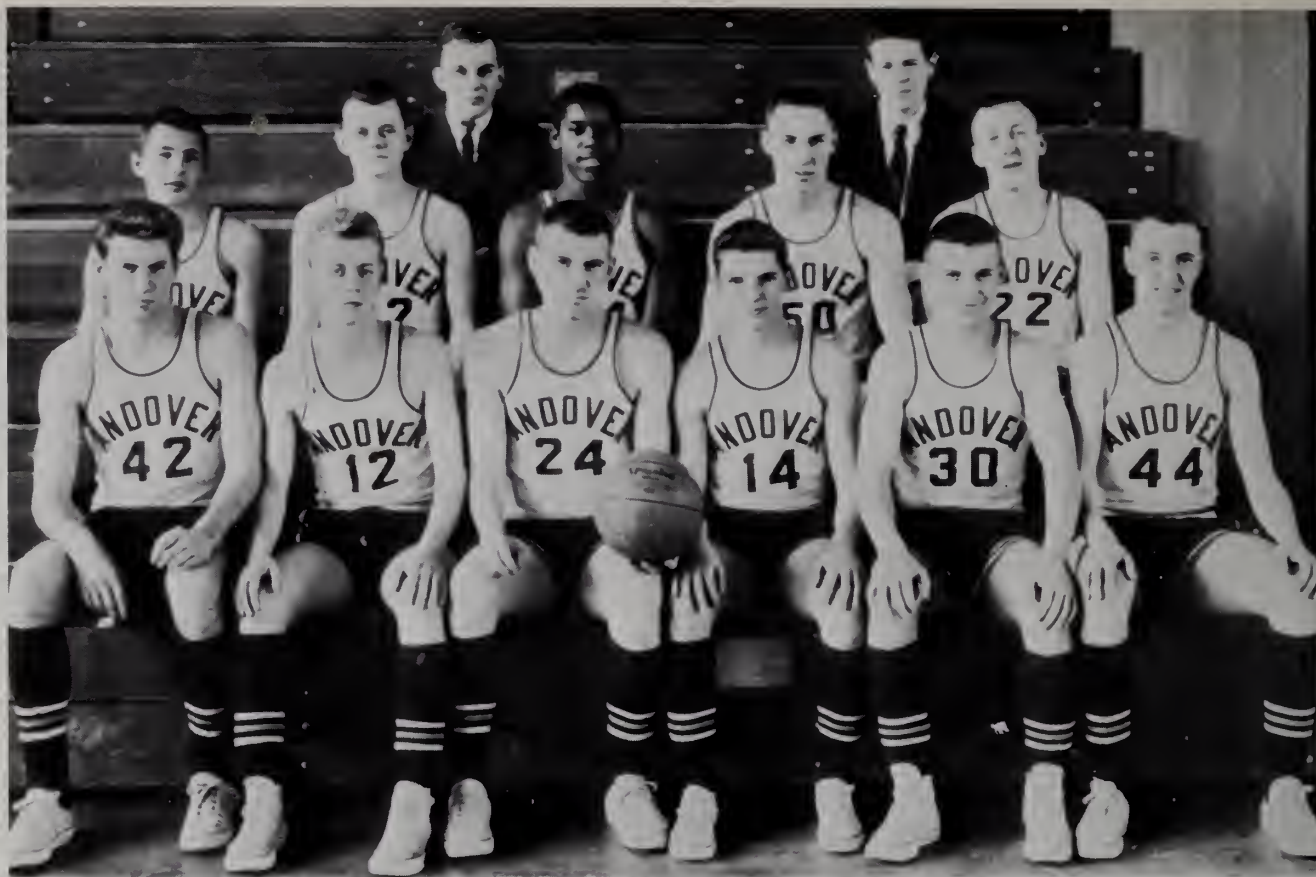

I use Elmer's Glue-all.

"Let's not play horsey now".

"Give me an 'A'!"

Sitting: R. Jackson, F. Trombly, Captain H. Emerson, J. Brent, J. Earley, B. Murphy. Top row: M. Noonan, A. O'Reilly, A. Yancy, D. Bennett, C. Murnane. Managers: Chris Gilcreast, Cliff Goddard.

BASKETBALL

Again this year, Andover High can be proud of its basketball team. The team came close to winning the Northeast Conference Crown and qualified for the Eastern Massachusetts Schoolboy Tournament (Tech Tournament) with a record of fourteen wins and four losses.

The team, led by captain Hugh Emerson, consisted of Art Yancy, Jim Earley, Dave Bennett, Roger Jackson, Alan O'Reilly, Bob Murphy, Frank Trombly, Jim Brent, and Rick Harrison. Much was contributed by Noonan, Gallant, Petrie, and Marjerison. The team was also successful in winning the Little Three Crown, sweeping all four games with North Andover and Methuen.

The season was highlighted by victories over such teams as Marblehead and Winthrop. A great deal of credit goes to Coach Hixon for keeping the team "on the ball."

Speed, a strong bench, and a strong desire to win made this team successful. These traits helped the team defeat South Boston 56-51 in their first Tech Tournament game.

GYM TEAM

The gym team, under the able coaching of Mr. Joseph Dorsey, has won two straight State Championships. This year they hope to make it three in a row. They are currently undefeated, with twelve victories. This year the state championships will be held in Andover, thus everyone will be given the opportunity to cheer for the Golden Warriors, and see some fine performances.

This year's team is led by co-captains Dennis Lyons and Sam Cataudella. Lyons specializes in the side horse and long horse and Cataudella in the still rings and high bar. Ben Ardizonne, a three event man, has contributed much to a winning squad. James Mottram has been outstanding in tumbling and floor exercise as has Warren Hastings in free exercise and the parallel bars. Ray Pelletier has excelled in the high bar. David West, Ray Dery, and Bill Leong have also done well in the still rings. Sam Murray, and Norman Auchterlonie have shown steady improvement on the side horse. Congratulations on a fine season and good luck in the state meet.

W. Westaway, P. Shearston, R. Heroux, M. Cetlin, J. Provosoli, A. West, E. Huot, G. Brown. Third row: P. Whitman, J. MacMahon, D. Thompson, R. Dalton, B. Hill, S. Lamb, D. Eastman, B. Harrison, R. Morgan, Coach Mr. Collins.

WINTER AND SPRING TRACK

The track team has attained another fine record, despite injuries and sickness this winter. Having placed well in the Northshore League, the team is looking forward to continued success in the spring.

The team is led by co-captains Lennie Sheehan and Ralph Dockray. Lennie is a standout in the mile and Ralph is an excellent shot putter. Ed Huot and Ed Seero have also done well in the shot put. Rick Nichols and Harry Dustin have done a good job in the hurdles and compete in the high jump regularly. Nichols has had an outstanding winter season as State Class C Champion in High Hurdles, and it is hoped that he will do as well in the spring.

Sophomore John MacMahon and junior Robert Petrie have shown well in the 300, while Cliff Pike and Henry James have done a fine job in the 600. Roland Heroux has brought home many firsts in the 1000 yard run.

In the spring, Bill Doherty, Dan Kocher, and Sam Cataudella will be counted on in broad jump and pole vault. Harry Dustin will throw in the javelin and Huot, Robert Lane, and Dockray will hurl the discus. Roger Jackson will contribute to the team in the 880 and Dave Bennett will aid in the high jump and hurdles. John Provosoli and Dean Eastman will run in the dash and Robert Corry in the 1000.

Rick Nichols takes first place in state meet.

High jump

First row: L. Sheehan, D. Kocher, G. Solbraa, C. Pike, E. Parker. Second row: P. Witman, T. Lake, P. Shearston, S. Manning, J. Provosoli, A. West, F. Dalrymple, Coach Mr. Dorsey.

CROSS COUNTRY

The cross country team had an interesting and enjoyable season under the coaching of Mr. Dorsey. The team was led by co-captains Ed Parker and Lennie Sheehan. Sheehan took many first places. Parker, Cliff Pike and Joe Provosoli also ran well. The team can certainly look forward to a fine season next year.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Sharon

The Girls' Basketball team was in the process of reorganization this year, after losing most of their varsity and junior varsity players. Although their season was not successful, the girls acquired much experience and were introduced to many new techniques. The Varsity Team was composed of 5

Sophomores, 2 Juniors, and 4 Seniors. Seniors participating were Captain Pat Lynch, Julie Leslie, Marty Peront, and Judy Bayliss. Miss Tribou, the new physical education instructor at Andover and Girls' Basketball coach, anticipates an excellent season next year.

Co-captains: Pat Lynch & Mary Lou Carr

The unlimited pep and enthusiasm shown by our cheerleaders this year has certainly been an incentive toward victory in all athletic contests. Under the leadership of Captain Bonnie Walker, the girls developed many cheers to support our new school mascot "The Golden Warriors".

In December the cheerleaders sponsored a Cheerleader's Clinic for all schools in the surrounding area. This was the first clinic in Greater Lawrence and the cheerleaders hope that other schools will continue this practice since it proved beneficial to all who attended.

The girls sold Golden Warrior sweatshirts to be worn during the games in the fall. They also sponsored a football dance "The Huddle". Both activities helped to increase school spirit and the support of the new symbol.

The Student Council officially changed our mascot to the Golden Warrior. Each student was asked to submit ideas for the new mascot. After the final choice was made, designs depicting the new mascot were judged by the council. The Warrior designed by Ed Parker was chosen. The symbol now appears on Student Council book covers, sweatshirts and all team uniforms.

The Cheerleaders and the Pep Club worked diligently to support the Golden Warrior. Many new cheers and school songs were used at the games. With the spirit shown by the students the athletic teams have done a fine job under the new mascot.

During an impressive rally in the fall, Sebastian Cataudella personified the mascot by appearing in an original indian costume.

We who have initiated this, hope that the new mascot will become a tradition at Andover, and that the athletic teams will continue their fine performances.

STUDENT LIFE

FINALE

"And what do you want for Christmas??"

"I — One of these days, — you boys!"

"And here's where we plant the depth charge."

"No, no — not on my desk!"

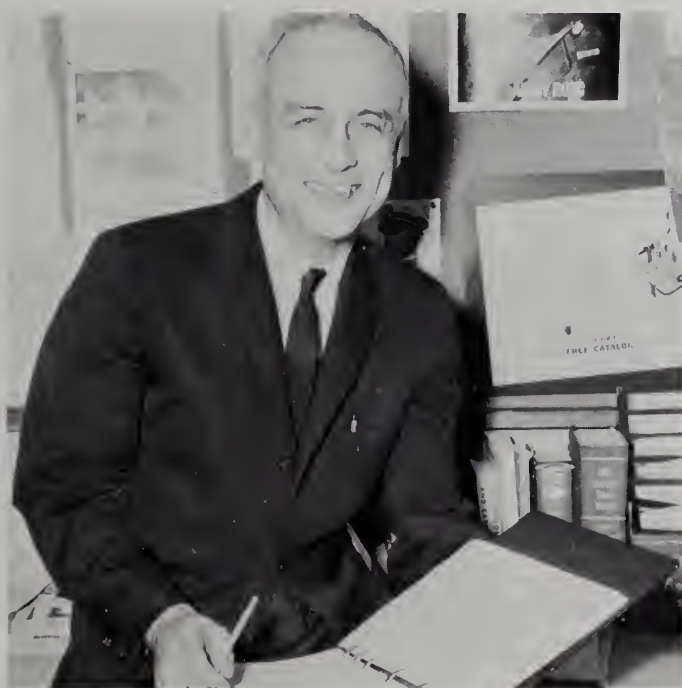

"What? You're a football player, too."

"Park her in the rear buddy!"

"Who was booing at the Tech Tourney?"

"After a two year test, my group showed 34% fewer cavities."

"Who's been putting rubber lead in my pencil?"

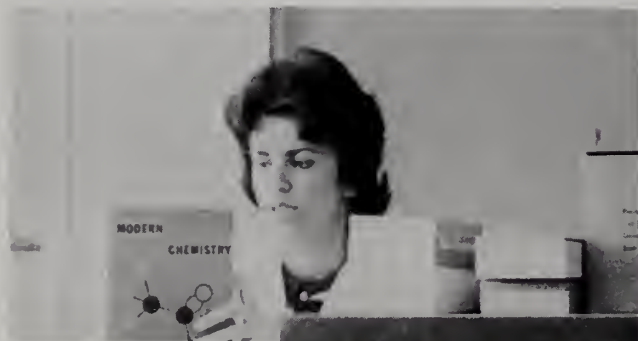

"Oooh, what a cookie!"

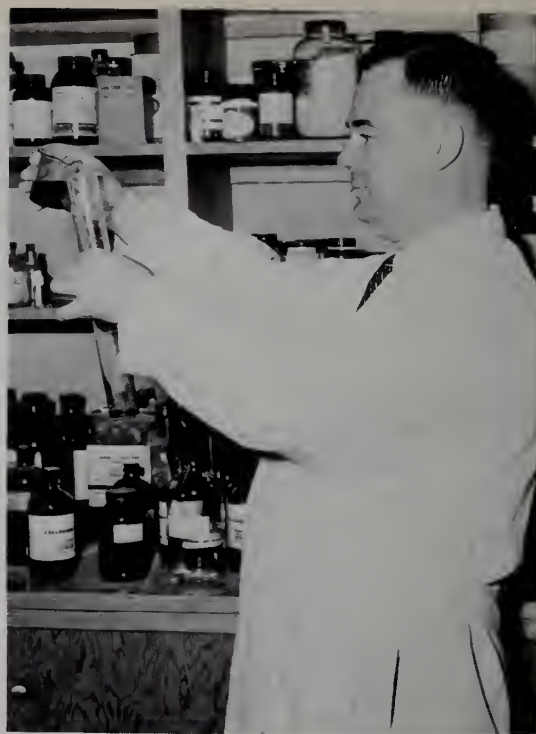

A fireside chat with Uncle Boyle.

No, I don't usually correct papers in chalk.

And then the little bear . . .

They will smell it all the way to the gym.

No, a circle does not have a square root.

I told him not to wear his tie near the machine.

Allright, who put the pin-up on the black-board.

No, I don't but I look at the pictures.

*Beatlemania SWEEPS U.S.
Thank you for the pin-up
I just love Ringo!
Much. You are the hitman

Good luck!*

Where's the one about Humpty Dumpty?

Sit down — that was just the warning bell.

"What do you mean cheat?"

"Let's not let the game slip through our fingers?"

"What do you mean disorganized?"

"What do I do with it now?"

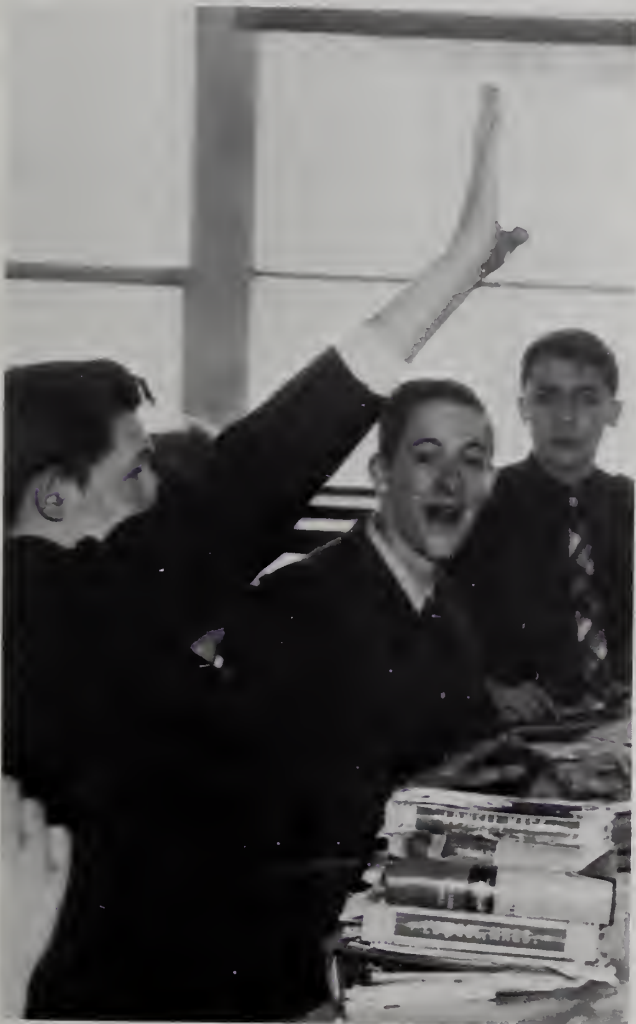

"Miss Dalton, did you have to squash that fly on my painting?"

"You've got two weeks to live!"

Love at first sight!

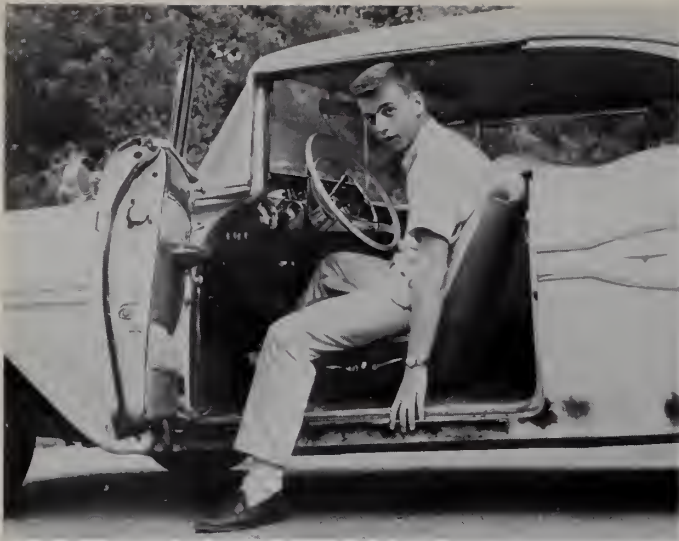

"Sieg Heil!"

Emerson "puts" it in.

"Okay, who put sand in my sandwich??"

"When the brakes fail I drag my feet!"

"Mr. Dorsey, can't we use a basketball?"

"Oh, he stepped on my foot."

"Now where did I leave my car?"

"Welcome to the Luau."

"Nice Shot!"

"Who said they all left?"

"The name is Winters . . . what of it??"

"Fill her up!"

"Let's see who was buried in Grant's tomb?"

"How do you want your lobster, baked or boiled?"

*We have passed through a fleeting
Moment of our lives —
It was crowded, crammed
With lessons, laughter, and tribulations —
Each second so precious
Yet hours were often
The harbingers of sorrow, and frustration.
School was thus drudgery and exhilaration —
School was a place to grow,
A field to sprout in —
School was an introduction to
The wisdom of the ages,
To new methods of exploration,
To concepts, to ideas.
We depart still growing —
But we have been exposed
To the sunshine
And the storms —
Yet unseasoned
Lost, but searching
Confused, but groping
Assured now that we
Are more alive than before.*

There was a girl whose name was Lorraine,
who really wasn't much of a pain,
except when worrying
and studying for Latin, but really she wasn't to be blamed (it was Miss Grier's fault, ha, ha!)

good luck,
Syna

Lorraine,
To one of the nicest and happiest girls in this school.
Also a very efficient
treasurer (I guess!)
Good luck always,
